T Numb. 493

The Daily Courant.

Monday, November 15. 1703.

From the Amsterdam Gazette dated Nov. 12.

Rome October 20,

THE Count de Lamberg, the Emperors Embassador, is return'd hither from Leghorn, At Sienna he was complimented and entertain'd by the Marquess de Stuffa on the part of the Great Duke of Tuscany, to whom not only that Minister but Admiral Shovel likewise, sent each a Genrleman, to thank him for all theHonours done them during their stay at Leghorne. Since Count Carandini's Confinement in the Prison of the Holy Office, the Inquisitors have found themselves a great deal of Business; abundance of People of both Sexes have been taken up and carried before their Tribunal, many of which have been committed to Prison, so that no Citizen of Rome can remember the like; for in so short a compass of time as two Months, no less than 400 Persons have been imprison'd for Heresy. The Countess of Carandini is dangerously ill. The Pope has been prevail'd upon by the Relations of Prince Vaini, to consent that he should be releas'd out of the Castle of St. Angelo, and retire to his Estate at Selci, paying 6000 Crowns to be applyed to pious Uses; but that Prince hopes to obtain his Liberty upon easier Terms, in consideration of his being a Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghost and under the Protecton of the King of France, and has therefore refus'd to accept his Holynesses Clemency. In one of our former it was said that sentence of Death was pass'd on one of the Sons of the Duke de Cesarini for attempting to carry away by force the Daughter of Carlo Marata the Painter; the Pope has lately signified to the Duke his Father, to his Brother, and the rest of his Kindred, that if they offer any manner of Injury to Marata or his Family, they may expect to be punish'd for it with the utmost Rigour; and the better to keep them in awe, has oblig'd them to give 10000 Crowns Security for their good Behaviour. The Count de Lamberg has left the Marquess de Santa Croce (whom he took with him to Leghorn) at Lucca, till an Accommodation is perfected with the Brothers of the Baron Gavoti, whom he kill'd in a Duel.

From the Amsterdam Courant Nov. 15.

Breda, Nov. 13. the Regiment of Lieutenant General Salisch our Governour came in here on the 11th and the same day the Regiment of Barrymore embark'd for Helvoetsluys, so now our Garrison consists of 8 Squadrons and 6 Battallions. To Day our Governor received an Express from the Hague, whereupon Orders were immediatly dispatch'd to the Governor of the Places lying about us. The Garrison of Antwerp consists at present of 9 Battallions, most French, and some parts of the Fortifications of the Place are strengthened with new Works The Enemy are planting Palisadoes along their Line from Antwerp to Lier.

Philippine, Nov. 9. We have Intelligence from the Spanish Netherlands, that the French and Spanish Regiments are marching to their several Garrisons: and that the Places bordering on the Territories of the States General, will be fill'd with the Enemies Troops. Monsieur de Covarruvias, late Governor of Ostend, is set out for Spain, through France, with a noble Equipage.

Brussels, Nov. 6. The Troops of both Armies in this Country being all upon the march into Winter Quarters, the Marshals Villeroy and Boufflers came hither yesterday, and were saluted with the discharge of the Artillery of our Ramparts. 'Tis believed the Marshal de Villeroy will visit all the Fortified Places on the Frontier of Flanders and return to Court by the way of Dunkirk and Calais.

From the Brussels Gazett, Nov. 6.

Lisbon, Oct. 9. The Queen Dowager of England has been very much indispos'd of the Stone several Days, but is at present more at ease. The President de Rouille Ambassador of France, before his departure homewards, was by the Kings direction to the Master of the Ceremonies presented with a Jewel worth 4000 Cruzades. The Officers of the Inquisition, have since the late Auto de Fe, seiz'd several Persons suspected of Judaism; and likewise some Armenian Merchants that were come hither to Traffick, but for what cause these latter are seiz'd we cannot learn.

From the Brussels Gazett, Nov. 9.

Brussels, Nov. 9. Letters from Ulm of the 26th of last Month advise, that the precautions taken by the Elector of Bavaria to secure Memmingen, had oblig'd the Prince of Baden to desist from the Design he had form'd against that Place; that the Imperialists are canton'd along the Iller 4 Leagues above Memmingen; and that the Winter Season being too far advanced for further Action, the Troops on both sides were preparing to leave the Field and march into Quarters.

'Lisbon, Nov. 11. Within a little time above '2500 Spanish Soldiers have come over into this 'Country; besies 2 intire Companies with their Officers, Colours, &c, which Deserters assure us that 'there is great likelihood of a general Desertion 'of the Spanish Troops, as soon as King Charles the 'III shall appear atthe Head of the Army of the Allies on the Frontiers of Spain; and as great a likelyhood of a Revolution in that Kingdom, as soon 'as the Spaniards see whither to betake themselves 'for Protection. A Barcalonga with 12 Oars has 'brought a Spanish Grandee from Seville to Faro, 'who on his arrival dispatch'd an Express with Letters to the King of Portugal, and the Amirante of 'Castile; but we cannot yet tell his Name.

London, November 14. Yesterday arriv'd an Express from Weymouth, bringing Advice, that the Lizard was come in there, who left the Fleet under Sir Cloudsly Shovel, 8 days before, on this side of the Streighs

Streights Mouth, making the best of their way after him for England.
